

Does the Public Sector Information Directive Deliver?

5th Communia Workshop, London
(Mireille van <Eechoud@ivir.nl>)

PSI Directive rationale: (re)use promotes welfare

How to be achieved?

improve access by transparency

strive for competitive
a.k.a. equal access

remove organisational / financial barriers

- Registers of available materials (Asset registers)
- Use of standard licenses
- Non discriminatory access
- Non exclusive licenses
- Transparent pricing
- Cost should not be prohibitive (preferred: no or marginal costs)
- Licensing and delivering content online

What Does Directive 2003/98 Actually Say?

- Registers of available materials (Asset registers)
 - Licensing and delivering content online
 - Use of standard licenses
 - Non discriminatory access
 - Non exclusive licenses
 - Transparant pricing (cost oriented)
 - Cost should not be prohibitive (preferred: no or marginal costs)
- ‘Where possible’
 - ‘If available, may use’
 - Atypical cases, fine-grained categories?
 - Full cost charging plus reasonable ROI allowed.
